

HARBOR ISLES RULES

Introduction

This list of rules is a compilation derived in part from rules that are explicitly stated in the Declarations of Condominium of either Harbor Isles I (HI-1) or Harbor Isles II (HI-2) or both. Where the rules differ between HI-1 and HI-2, the differences are noted. If there is a difference between the wording in the Declarations of Condominium and this listing of rules, the former is controlling. The list also includes rules that have been adopted from time to time by the Boards of Administration (BOA) of one or the other condo. Rules that apply to shared recreational facilities apply to all persons using the facility without regard to the condo in which they reside or at which they are guests.

The basic reason for having rules is that it is necessary for everyone in a condominium to exercise a little extra care and consideration for their neighbors with whom they share common property, external space, and recreational facilities. The rules are guidelines which will help everyone recognize and respect their neighbors' rights to peaceful, un-harried enjoyment both of their individual living units and of the pools, clubhouse, tennis courts, lawns, roads, trees, shrubbery, and wildlife which we all share and in which we all delight.

The BOA of both condominiums asks that every resident read and comply with these rules. If a question arises about the rules, a condo Board member or management should be contacted for clarification. It is particularly important to have all tenants and guests adhere to both the letter and the spirit of these guidelines.

The Boards of both condos try to respond appropriately to complaints about rule infractions. However, they hope that residents will be as reasonable and understanding as possible so that rules do not have to be enforced so strictly that no one is able to have a little light-hearted fun from time to time.

Trespassing

It should be noted by all owners, tenants, and guests that to help the police in maintaining security on the Harbor Isles grounds, it has been agreed by the Boards of Administration of both HI-1 and HI-2 that any person found to be trespassing on the property of either HI-1 or HI-2 shall be considered to be trespassing on the property of the other condo also. Trespassing means being present on Harbor Isles property without being a Harbor Isles owner or tenant or being the invited guest of a specific Harbor Isles owner or tenant.

Responsibilities of Owners

Access to Units --- Members of a BOA or its agents may enter the units at reasonable times (a) for maintenance, repair, inspection, or improvement, (b) to deal with emergencies, and (c) to determine compliance with the rules, Condo Doc. [X,(F)].

HI-2 association rule 5-01-15-G "All unit door locks, must be "keyed" to the Association's 'Master Key' and that any unit owner - current or new - will be responsible for the expense of having the lock appropriately keyed, after May 1 2005." As a rule, a member of the BOA or its agent will attempt to contact the owner of a unit before entry. Unit owners should provide the BOA with a key to the unit for cases of emergencies. Those who have not provided the office with a key may be responsible for a locksmith fee to gain entry to the unit.

Alarm System--- HI 2 - It is the unit owner's responsibility to contact the BOA or management to activate the alarm system. Any change in phone numbers should immediately be reported to management. Unit owner's "4 digit CODE" number should be given to the BOA or its agent for deactivation during emergencies. All service calls should be made to 1-800-635-1635.

Air Conditioning Units--- For HI - 1, all newly installed air conditioning units shall be limited to 36" in height from the top of the slab to the top of the unit. If the width and/or depth increase from the current width and/or depth, the unit must first have Board approval prior to installation.

Approval is required to ensure the new unit does not encroach upon other units and that it will still allow maintenance to other units and their surrounds.

HI-2 all new A/C units need preapproval by form

Appearance --- Modifications to common elements (such as installation of screen or storm doors, roll-able shutters, glass enclosures, or for HI-1, substantially larger A/C condensers) may be made only if they conform to the style prescribed by the condo and if they have prior written approval from the Board.

Leases must incorporate the condo documents by reference and the tenant must be informed of the condominium rules by the owner.
